

---

News Release

Aug. 20, 2018

Hawaiian Fusion Dinner and Show to Benefit Local Seniors

On Saturday, Sept. 8, the City of Concord will host the 17th annual Hawaiian Fusion dinner and show to benefit low-income seniors.

Guests will be transported to the Aloha state and enjoy a delicious Hawaiian buffet and a fantastic island show by Nathan Aweau, three-time Na Hoku Hanohano Vocalist of the Year. The evening will also include dance performances by Te Otui Fenua and chances to win some great raffle prizes.

This annual fundraiser provides scholarships for low-income seniors to use for transportation and social activities, and organizers hope to raise upwards of $9,000.

“I have used my scholarship to visit museums and sites within the Bay Area and it was truly enjoyable,” said Jorge Aquino, a scholarship recipient. “I encourage all seniors with limited income to avail themselves of this great program offered by the Concord Senior Center so they can enjoy the sites which otherwise may not be affordable.”

Tickets are $50 per person and can be purchased at <https://bit.ly/2NN4IEe>

The dinner, which is catered by Got Plate Lunch, features:

- Kalua Pork and Cabbage
- BBQ Chicken with Garlic Soy Dipping Sauce
- White Rice
- Macaroni Salad
- Green Salad
- Baked Sweet Potato
- Assorted Fruits

There will also be a no-host bar with beer, wine, soda, water and coffee provided by Concord’s Commission on Aging.

Doors will open at 5 p.m. and dinner will begin at 5:45 p.m. The show is scheduled to get underway at 7 p.m.

Event Details

Hawaiian Fusion
Saturday, September 8, 2018
5-8:30 p.m.
Concord Senior Center
2727 Parkside Circle

Concord, CA 94519