Subject: Appointment of applicant to serve on the Measure Q Oversight Committee

Report in Brief

An unscheduled vacancy on the Measure Q Oversight Committee has occurred because Matthew Hohenstreet, the business representative to the Measure Q Oversight Committee, resigned from his position on the Committee on March 18, 2016. In compliance with the Maddy Act, a notice of vacancy was posted on that date.

The City of Concord has a current list of applications from a previous recruitment for a resident position, and received two additional applications from the posted notice of vacancy. Applications are on file from: Michael Albers (Resident), Vicci Stillwell (Resident), Fuad Omran (Resident), Gene Sylls (Resident), Pablo Benavente (Resident) and Darrin Walters (Business).

Recommended Action

Staff recommends the appointment of one person to fill the unscheduled vacancy for a business representative with a term ending December 31, 2017.

Background

There is one unscheduled vacancy on the Measure Q Committee with a term ending December 31, 2017. This position is for a business representative.

The members of the Measure Q Oversight Committee must not hold another municipal office in the City of Concord. The Measure Q Oversight Committee will review and report on the receipt of revenue and expenditures of funds from the tax authorized. The Committee will sunset (cease to exist) on June 30, 2026, after ensuring the review the City's audit of the final year of revenue received from the tax.

The City of Concord has a current list of applications from a previous recruitment, and received two additional applications after posting the notice of vacancy.

PUBLIC CONTACT

Applicants have been notified of the appointment date. The agenda was properly posted.
