

ORDINANCE NO. 17-7

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING THE CONCORD MUNICIPAL CODE BY ADOPTING NEW CHAPTER 19.40 “RESIDENTIAL RENT REVIEW PROGRAM”

WHEREAS, the City of Concord’s renters comprise 44 percent of the City’s population and are an essential part of the community fabric; and

WHEREAS, the City of Concord’s renter households include thousands of low and very low income households, including seniors, young children, and persons with special needs; and

WHEREAS, the City of Concord is committed to remaining a diverse and inclusive community; and

WHEREAS, the average monthly rent for Concord apartments rose 50.1 percent between the second quarter of 2011 and the second quarter of 2016, from $1,172 to $1,760, which is equivalent to an annual rate of increase of 8.5 percent, according to a study provided by Newmark Cornish & Carey Research; and

WHEREAS, this rate of increase far exceeded the rate of increase in household income during this time period, requiring renter households to dedicate larger shares of their income for housing; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Census American Community Survey reported that 40 percent of Concord’s lower income renter households were spending more than half of their annual incomes on rent in 2016;

WHEREAS, the higher cost of rent has created financial hardships for a growing number of Concord tenants, and made it more difficult for some tenants to stay in the community; and

WHEREAS, population forecasts for Concord indicate that employment is projected to grow at a faster rate than population during the next 20 years, placing further pressure on the housing supply; and

WHEREAS, the Concord City Council and City Council’s Housing and Economic Development Committee convened hearings on the issue of rising rents on June 27, July 26, September 26, October 24, and November 29, 2016 and on January 30 and March 8, 2017; and

1 WHEREAS, the City Council heard testimony from many Concord renters regarding financial 2 hardships relating to rent increases, and the need for intervention to reduce the threat of displacement;
3 and

4 WHEREAS, the City Council also heard extensive testimony from Concord landlords urging 5 fair and equitable solutions that supported long-term investment in the City’s rental housing stock;

7 WHEREAS, at their November 29, 2016 meeting, a majority of the City Council expressed 8 that non-binding mediation and rent review programs were preferable to binding rent control measures 9 and subsequently directed staff to develop a rent review program focused on mediation with the 10 option of a public hearing; and

11 WHEREAS, the Council Housing and Economic Development Committee convened a study 12 session on March 8, 2017 confirming the elements of a proposed rent review program; and

13 WHEREAS, the City Council, after giving all public notices required by State Law and the 14 Concord Municipal Code, held a duly noticed public hearing on May 2, 2017, on the proposed 15 Residential Rent Review Program as set forth in Exhibit A (“Amendment”) and declared their intent 16 to approve and adopt the Amendment and add Chapter 19.40 to the City’s Municipal Code; and

17 WHEREAS, at such public hearing, the City Council considered all oral and written 18 information, testimony, and comments received during the public review process, including 19 information and oral and written staff reports received at the public hearings which took place on June 20 27, July 26, September 26, October 24, and November 29, 2016 and on January 30 and March 8,
21 2017, the oral report from City staff, the written report from City staff dated May 2, 2017, materials, 22 exhibits presented, pertinent reports, studies, memoranda, the City of Concord Municipal Code, the 23 Development Code, applicable City laws and regulations, and all other information that constitutes the 24 record of proceedings upon which the City Council has based its decision and are maintained at the 25 offices of the City Clerk (collectively, “Project Information”); and

26 WHEREAS, the City Council finds and determines that under the City’s police powers, 27 regulating the relations between certain residential landlords and residential tenants will increase 28

1 certainty and fairness within the residential rental market in the City and thereby serve the public
2 health, safety and welfare; and

3 WHEREAS, the fee charged to landowners would not be assessed solely by virtue of property
4 ownership. Instead, the fee would be imposed on landlords in their capacity as business owners, or as 5 an incident of property ownership. (Apartment Ass'n of Los Angeles County, Inc. v. City of Los 6 Angeles (2001 24 Cal.4th 830).

7 NOW THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CONCORD DOES
8 ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

9 Section 1. Recitals. The City Council finds that the above recitals (which are hereby 10 incorporated by reference) are accurate and constitute findings in this matter and, together with the 11 Project Information, serve as an adequate and appropriate evidentiary basis for the findings and 12 actions set forth in this Ordinance and further makes the following findings:

13 Section 2. CEQA. Adoption of the proposed Ordinance and Residential Rent Review
14 Program is not subject to environmental review under the California Environmental Quality Act
15 (CEQA) of 1970, as amended, because the adoption of the program does not constitute a “project,” 16 does not commit the City to a definite course of action, does not constitute discretionary approval of a 17 specific project, and will not result in a direct or reasonably foreseeable indirect physical change in the 18 environment, pursuant to CEQA Guidelines Sections 15060(c), 15378 and Public Resources Code
19 Section 21065. In addition, the proposed Ordinance and Residential Rent Review Program is 20 categorically exempt pursuant to Section 15061(b)(3), “Review for Exemptions” of the CEQA
21 Guidelines because there is no possibility that the Program may have a significant effect on the 22 environment, and no further environmental review is required. No unusual circumstances are present
23 and this determination reflects the City’s independent judgment and analysis.

24 Section 3. Approval. The City Council hereby approves and adopts the Amendment to the 25 Municipal Code, more particularly the addition of Chapter 19.40, as shown in Exhibit A, which is 26 incorporated herein by reference.

27 Section 4. Severability. If any section, subsection, clause, or phrase of this Ordinance, or its

1 application to any person or circumstance, is for any reason held to be invalid or unenforceable, such 2 invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining sections,
3 or its application to any other person or circumstance. The City Council declares that it would have 4 adopted this Ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, and phrase thereof, irrespective 5 of the fact that any one or more section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase be declared invalid.

6 Section 5. Publication and Effective Date. This Ordinance shall take effect thirty (30) days
7 following passage and adoption. In the event a summary of said Ordinance is published in lieu of the 8 entire Ordinance, a certified copy of the full text of this Ordinance shall be posted in the office of the 9 City Clerk at least five (5) days prior to its adoption and within fifteen (15) days after its adoption,
10 including the vote of the Council members. Additionally, a summary prepared by the City Attorney’s 11 Office shall be published once at least five (5) days prior to the date of adoption of this Ordinance and 12 once within fifteen (15) days after its passage and adoption, including the cote of the 13 Councilmembers, in the East Bay Times, a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Concord.

The determination of the Panel shall be mailed to the Parties together with written findings supporting the determination within seven (7) calendar days of the hearing.
 - (j) The determination of the Panel shall be advisory to the Parties and shall not be binding. However, if both parties agree to the resolution proposed by the Panel, they may formalize the agreement in a standard form signed by both parties. Neither the City nor the Panel shall be a party to such an agreement, nor shall the City or the Panel assume any responsibility for enforcement of its terms.
