

Engineering Permits – Instructions and Requirements for a Concord Encroachment Permit

Instructions:

1. Application: Applicant completes an Application for Encroachment Permit Form: Job site, street address, date, Permittee and their street address (no. P.O.) and phone number, Contractor and their address and phone, State and City business licenses, starting and completion dates, contact name and phone, description of work - if City job, need project name and number. Please write subdivisions name and file number.
2. General Liability Insurance: Applicant reads bottom portion of form referencing Certificate of Insurance and License Compliance. Applicant will provide a certificate showing commercial general liability insurance policy in force naming the City of Concord as an additional insured in an amount of not less than one million dollars ($1,000,000.00) per person and per occurrence combined single limit. The contractor furnishes a certificate of general liability to each encroachment permit. Utility companies are not required to submit this information. Homeowners proposing to do their own work will need to show proof of insurance, usually in the form of a certificate from the homeowner's policy.
3. Worker's Compensation and Contractor's Licensing: Contractor is required to provide proof of worker's compensation insurance.
4. Working Plans: Applicant submits three (3) sets of plans for the work to be done. Applicants does not need to submit plans for Concord Improvement Projects (CIP). Other plans and/or documents may be required.
5. Payment: Fees must be collected at submittal time of an encroachment application. Applicants seeking Encroachment permits for CIP's are not required to pay permit related fees and will be issued "no fee" encroachment permit. Utility Companies will be billed later for their encroachment permits if applicable.
6. City Processing: City Staff will review the application and either process the encroachment permit or deny the application pending additional information from the applicant.
