

Final City budget hearing Tuesday, June 22

The Concord City Council will consider a number of cuts to City services as well as new revenue sources at this year's final budget hearing on June 22 at 6:30 p.m. in the City Council Chambers, 1950 Parkside Drive. The public is invited to attend and comment.

Learn more
Budget Hearing Report to City Council

Chili cook-off, Motown sounds at Sunday's DadDay event

Concord's DadDay in the Park on Sunday, June 20 in Todos Santos Plaza in downtown Concord celebrates heroes, including all dads plus the local heroes who work in our police and fire departments. Policemen and firemen face off in the first annual DadDay Chili Cook-Off beginning at 11 a.m., musical entertainment includes Motown by The Best Intentions.

Learn more

Downtown car show July 1, parade and festival July 4th

Concord's Independence celebration gets a head start on Thursday, July 1 with a car show and finishes with the annual parade and festival on Sunday, July 4th at Todos Santos Plaza in downtown Concord.

"Cool Concord Cars" on July 1 features restored vintage and muscle cars, pre-1973, as well as new cars on display around Todos Santos Plaza beginning at 4:30 p.m. The farmers' market will be in the plaza from 4 to 8 p.m. with the band Juke Joint taking the stage at 6:30 p.m.

On Sunday, July 4, the Independence Day festival begins at 8 a.m. with the annual parade stepping off at 11:30 a.m.

Learn more

