

Concord Senior Center Showcases Classes and Activities

Concord, CA (April 3, 2019) – The community is invited to the Concord Senior Center (2727 Parkside Circle) to try out classes and activities on April 29, 30, and May 2. Admission is free as the event is sponsored by the Concord Parks & Recreation Department and the Concord Senior Citizen’s Club. Participants will be able to experience hula, line dance, yoga, tai chi chih, pocket sketch, sewing, mixed media, pinochle, pedro, billiards and other activities.

In addition to the activities, representatives from the Home Match and AARP Driver Program will be on hand to answer any questions and two educational seminars will be offered:

- Monday, April 29 at 10:30 a.m.: “Taking Control of Your Driving Future” will be presented by Rosemary Robles, California Department of Motor Vehicles Senior Driver Ombudsman.
- Thursday, May 2 at 7 p.m.: “Financial Fitness for Seniors” will be presented by Don Rollins, Financial Health Consultant.

“Come by and experience, explore and engage in a great sampling of what the Concord Senior Center has to offer,” said Dario Sanchez, Program Coordinator.

For event schedule and registration information, please contact the Concord Senior Center at (925) 671-3320, opt. 1 or email concordsc@cityofconcord.org.

##